

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hon. Z. T. SMITH, of Henry county, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

DR. H. A. M. HENBERSON, of Bourbon county, is a candidate for re-election to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. R. P. HICKER is a candidate for the legislature subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1879.

OUR PROSPECTS AND DUTY.

National politics have engrossed the attention of the people of the United States, until State affairs have sunk into a secondary condition, and that which ought to be prominent, the welfare of each State, is lost sight of. Congressional matters and political management for the next Presidency absorb all interest. It is high time the people were awakening to the fact that without a prosperous condition of the States, the National Government would be in a beggarly condition. Suppose the States, from inattention, were like Tennessee, already upon the eve of repudiation, what advantage would it be either to have a Congress or President? North Carolina has a little better off than Tennessee, is proposing to pay off her debt at 40% of the principle of some of her bonds, 25c and 15c upon others. We ought to take this advantage and improve it, for neglect of our own affairs may involve bad legislation and notwithstanding we are in a condition similar to the healthfulness financial, of Mississippi, we might be embarrassed and bankrupted. We want no wild and expensive legislation, nothing but substantial improvements in the navigation of our waters, rigid economy in the administration of all the affairs of the State, and light taxation upon the people, thus recognizing the fact that taxation ought only to be levied for making and administering the laws. Such improvements as are plainly practicable and admissibly remunerative, in reaching the natural wealth of the State and conveying it to market, and the stability and property of Kentucky will be insured. Now upon the eve of choosing legislators and officials of the State it is commendable to select suitable ability and too much care can not be taken in the choice, upon this hangs all that is valuable to the State. The very best material ought to be selected, intelligent sensible men, men of experience and firmness, honest men, alive to the necessities of the people and the responsibilities of the positions with which they are entrusted, finally the ablest and the best. We have such men and wisdom demands that of such material we furnish our proportion to the State.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Republican convention of this county, on the 3rd inst., unanimously recommended Prof. Malcolm McIntyre, as a suitable and capable man to fill the position of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Prof. McIntyre is a native of Maine, but has been a citizen of this State for 21 years past.

He was fitted for college at Phillips' Exeter Academy, of New Hampshire. He taught as assistant at Westbrook Academy, in Maine, in 1855. He graduated at Bowdoin College, in the class of 1857, and soon after, was chosen as principal of Painsford (Me.) Seminary. He came to this State in 1858, and taught in Owensesboro from 1858 to 1863. About this time his health failed, and he concluded for awhile, at least, to abandon teaching. He entered the Government service, and from then to 1874, he was engaged in the revenue service all the time, except a short time which he was engaged in the Provost Marshal's Office. Since 1874, he has taught school here in Hartford, and given very great satisfaction. He is a stampede Republican, and is, no doubt, as well fitted for the position as any one of his party mentioned in connection with the office. His experience as a teacher, gives him a good idea of the wants of the school interests of the State, and if a Republican should step in, we would like for Prof. McIntyre to be the man.

The Democrats of Ohio county are called to meet here next Monday, to select delegates to attend the State Convention, which meets in Louisville, May 1st, to nominate candidates for State offices. Reports came to me that quite a number of the conventions held in other counties have been boisterous noise and strife. For the sake of the good name of the Democrats of Ohio county, let this not truly be said of our convention. Let every Democrat who feels a sufficient interest, (and any one should attend), and in a fair, honest way, express his preference for the aspirants for the different offices, and let those who find themselves in the minority, graciously yield to the wishes of the majority. Let it be said of Ohio county Democrats, that they had the most orderly convention yet held in the State.

JUST AS THE REV. T. DAVIT TALKED.

begin to make his influence felt for good, a lot of vicious, bigoted religious fools undertake to pull him down. They have him arraigned for trial before a Brooklyn Presbytery, charged with a lot of frivolous things, and are delaying from day to day to bring the matter to an end. Some of the witnesses cited by which some of the charges were to be proven have published a card saying that no such proof can be made by them.

COL. JOHN P. BARNARD, of the Iberia and Col. S. P. Love, of this place, are having a lively controversy through the columns of the Herald, on the "Murchison question." Col. Love thinks Judge Morehead did have a right to refuse John Blacklock a trial by jury, and Col. Barnard thinks he did not. The entire population of Mullenberg and Ohio counties breathlessly await the result of the discussion. — [Mullenberg Echo.]

NOW, URG, why not tell it right. We have never expressed an opinion about the right of trial by jury. We have embodied the idea of the right of Police Judges of smaller towns, and villages, to summon and impanel grand juries. We have also had a few passes about jurisdiction.

C. T. BARNARD says, he was opposed to the resolution passed by the Greenback Convention, No. 5, except the first ten lines. The resolution is as follows:

We believe that greenbacks, and the union soldiers saved the government, and if resumption of specie payment is to be the policy of the government, we have a right to demand a readjustment of the pay accounts, of the union soldiers, and they be paid gold, or its equivalent, for all the time they served in the army.

Mr. Barnard was one of the members of the convention.

HON. R. P. HICKER is this week announced as an aspirant for Legislative honors. Mr. Hicker is well known to the voters of the county, and needs no introduction from us. He was elected to the position he now seeks, in 1875, and served very creditably to himself and his constituents.

He is a young man of fair attainments, moral habits and an unspotted reputation, and it is evident, will no doubt, represent the interests of the people faithfully.

THE Madisonville Times is 11 years old, and yet its editor is a young man.

O. C. RUTKA, formerly editor of the Russellville Herald, cannot stay out of the harness. He has commenced the publication in Russellville, of an eight-column paper, under the name of the Messenger.

A FARMER in Hart county has tried the plan of smoking his seed corn and finds it keeps insects from eating it and insures a good stand. Will some of our farmers please try the experiment and report the result to us.

THE Duke of Connaught, son of Queen Victoria, of England, and Princess Louise Margaret, daughter of the Prince and Princess Frederick Charles, of Prussia, were married last Thursday.

THE Greenbackers of Christian county, recommended Hon. Jacob Clark, of that county, for the nomination for Governor. They nominated Maj. E. G. Hale, for representative.

THE Greenback convention meets in Frankfort to-morrow; the Republican in Louisville on the 10th of April, and the Democratic in Louisville May the 1st.

THE man who stopped his paper lately because he could not afford it, recently sold a hundred bushels of wheat at twenty cents less than the market price.

THE reduction by Congress, of the tax on tobacco from 26 to 16 cents, will have, and in fact, has already had a good influence on the tobacco market.

THE Elizabethtown correspondent of the Courier-Journal, says Hon. W. R. Hayes, of Litchfield, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this district.

WHILE from the Meade County Record that Walter Daniel, aged 14 years, fell in Buck Creek and was drowned.

COUNTY ATTORNEY DEMSEY and Miss Leslie Holman, of Madisonville, were married yesterday.

GREENVILLE, KY., March 14.

Editor Herald:

The same dearth of news, nothing new to report. The fraternity is decently employed taking proof in actions that are being prepared for our Circuit Court, commencing the 3rd Monday in next month.

A Mrs. known an inmate of our poor house, died on Monday, from injuries received at the hands of her insane daughter, who was at the time also an inmate of the poor house, the daughter having been declared a lunatic by a jury, is now confined in a waiting the orders of the authorities of the Asylum at Hopkinsville.

There is also confined in jail another lunatic, a negro, by the name of James Rice, he had heretofore been an inmate of the Anchorage Asylum, but escaped and made his way here, he will be sent back when proper orders are received.

Police Court was in session all day yesterday, trying some negroes who were engaged in a Charivari, at the residence of a venerable colored individual, named Andy Begey, the scene in the court house, the "old man," giving in his testimony, his exerting and gesturing manner affuted immense fun to the audience, it was a fine picture for last, however nothing came of it, the jury concluded it was a little fun on the part of the boys, and let them off without a fine.

We have had fine weather for the last few days, a scarcity of people in town, which seems to say notwithstanding the hard times and scarcity of money they intend to strive to make a large crop, in fact, there seems to be great exertions on the part of the farmers of the county to pitch (as it is called,) a large crop. A few days ago I rode some 15 miles through the county, and I have rarely ever seen as many plant beds, and as large ones as I saw that day.

THE Nelson Creek neighborhood, I am informed, mad dogs are numerous, several have been killed, and others at large, a general hunt for them by the citizens, the scene is so great that families are afraid to leave their homes, and parents keep their children from school on account of them.

The Republicans of Ohio county are called to meet here next Monday, to select delegates to attend the State Convention, which meets in Louisville, May 1st, to nominate candidates for State offices. Reports came to me that quite a number of the conventions held in other counties have been boisterous noise and strife.

For the sake of the good name of the Democrats of Ohio county, let this not truly be said of our convention.

THE Democrats of Breckinridge county, select a candidate for Representative by Primary Election, on the first Saturday in April. R. R. Pierce of Clermont, is announced as a candidate for the nomination, also W. D. Holt, of Holt's Bottom.

THE Republicans of Butler county, on Monday of last week, nominated Jell. Belcher, for the Legislature.

When he begins the canvass and is called upon for his platform, gives him Belcher out like a little man.

HOME MATTERS

LYCUS BARRETT...Local Editor

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 1879.

BRIEF MENTION.

—The winter king seems loth to vacate the throne.

—If you want a pair of good plow shoes, call on L. F. WERNER.

—Don't forget that Thomas Bro's have horse collars at 40 cents.

—The town seal is being rapidly repaired and will soon be ready for use.

—Read the large advertisement of Julius Winters & Co., on first page.

—The young gentlemen of town gave a very pleasant party at the Hartford House last Monday night.

—Mr. W. H. Eildon, of Owenton, spent a day or two in town last week visiting relatives.

—Mr. David W. Herring, of Maysville, paid his respects to the Herald office, 1st Saturday.

—Miss E. C. Coyle, a beautiful blonde, of Louisville, is visiting her brother, Mr. Joel Elmore, of Bell's Run, neighborhood, is very low with pneumonia, but the doctors think he will recover.

—With all my well-wishes to your valuable paper, I close.

—Dr. W. H. S. Cradock has contributed to our museum an old coin dated 1780, and consequently is now quite old. It is worn quite slick.

—Our Coneyville friend will please write on one side of the paper only, next time. His items are good and we hope to hear from him every week.

—Go to W. H. Williams & Son's for fresh oysters, and all kinds of fresh meats, which are kept on hand all the time. They also buy and sell all kinds of country produce.

—We regret that several typographical errors occurred in our Greenbrier communication last week, but such things will occasionally happen in the best regulated offices.

—We will issue from this office sometime this week, a trade sheet for Mr. J. T. Ignehart, the stock salesman. There will be about 2,000 copies run off, and it will be a good advertising medium.

—Read the new advertisement of Haden & Field, Livery Stable men, in this issue. Their are energetic young men and men business. They deserve well at the hands of the public.

—Messrs. Howe & Daniel have leased the "Favorite Mill" at Spring Lick, Grayson county, and propose to do business on a fair and just basis, and "here with a big bang." See the hand bills issued from this office.

—"Spring time is coming gentle Annie," said D. F. Tracy is coming to the front and announcing his willingness and ability to do any kind of good for our agricultural citizens. Call on him when you feel anything.

—The most beautiful sight that the eye ever witnessed was that of the reflection of the sun, Monday morning, upon the ice-covered trees in and around town—cruising each of them to look like a cluster of a million diamonds.

—The March term of the Ohio Criminal Court will commence next Monday. We presume a great number of men will have business engagements out of the county until they hear that the grand jury has closed.

—Communications from friends at Hartford, Beaver Dam, White Run, Rose and "Poor Neck," all crowded out this week for want of space. We regret this, as all these communications contain items of interest to our readers.

—Geo. A. Platt keeps a full line of all kinds of groceries, hardware, canned fruits, &c. He takes in exchange for goods, all kinds of country produce. When you come to Criminal Court next week, don't fail to call on him.

—Read the proclamation of E. Small. He means what he says, and wants the readers of the Herald to come and see for themselves. This store presents quite an attractive appearance, and is full to overflowing, with all the new and stylish goods to be found.

—Deputy Sheriff, Geo. W. Bunker, and B. E. Richardson, went out one night last week and arrested Peyton Hamilton, charged with breaking into a store house at Hines' Mills, about a year ago. They found a big knife on his person, and he was also called to account for that. Judge Newton held him to answer in both cases. He is boarding at "Castle Sullenger."

—Our city "dads" are having the town seal fixed up in excellent order. They will now weigh anything correctly from the size of four pounds up. They are also preparing to or at least thinking of building stock pens for the benefit of stock sales days. This would be evidently right and proper and would meet with the unqualified approval of almost every tax-payer in town.

—Mr. Chas. Blacklock, who received a very serious and painful wound in the leg by an accidental pistol shot, an account of which gave week before last, we are glad to learn, is convalescing. It was thought by his physicians for several days, that amputation would have to take place, but he hopped in on us last Thursday evening, looking as fresh and nourishing as a "green bay tree." He is representing R. L. Akin & Co., of Evansville, who are the proprietors of Aristide's Ague Tonic, Clond's Cordial and other medicines.

—Capt. W. H. Sandusky, the prince of landlords and the proprietor of the "Sandusky House," Owenton Junction, called to see us Saturday. If any of our readers want to get a good square meal as good as can be had any where from Maine to Texas, he is your man. Meador, Miller and Pendleton are the faithful and competent physicians who attend him.

Barnett's Creek News.

BARNETT'S CREEK, Ky., March 15, 1879.

—We invite the attention of the farmers of Ohio and adjoining counties, and our readers generally, to the advertisement of John R. & Wm. Phipps. They are industrious, energetic young men, and propose giving their whole time and attention to the milling business. They have secured the services of that popular and well-known miller, Mr. A. D. White, who will be found at all times ready to wait upon customers. Give them your patronage.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mr. Welby Colley and wife, of Owenton, are guests of the Hartford House.

—Mrs. Lou Brown, of Maysville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bennett, of this place.

—Mr. W. H. Eildon, of Owenton, spent a day or two in town last week visiting relatives.

—Mr. David W. Herring, of Maysville, paid his respects to the Herald office, 1st Saturday.

—Miss E. C. Coyle, a beautiful blonde, of Louisville, is visiting her brother, Mr. Joel Elmore, of Bell's Run, neighborhood, is very low with pneumonia, but the doctors think he will recover.

—With all my well-wishes to your valuable paper, I close.

BARNETT'S CREEK NEWS.

BARNETT'S CREEK, Ky., March 15, 1879.

—On last Monday 10th, of this month, Mr. Granville Patton, got his stables and corn crib burned down, with all his corn, gearing, and several other things. He went to work in his clearing, and took fire on a barrel, and a spark flew into the crib, and in five minutes it was in a light flame. Loss about two hundred dollars. We had the pleasure of witnessing the marriage of Dr. G. W. Chapman, to the widow, S. A. Dodson, at the bridges house Thursday, March 13th, 1879. It was quite an enjoyable affair. The boys came around, with their music boxes and ave ova, quite a nice serenade, there were thirty two of them, in the serenade. Mr. Leonard Hoover, Jr. of this neighborhood, died of pneumonia today, aged about twenty-four years. Miss Caroline Sutton, died of consumption, to-day. She was also a resident of this neighborhood. She was a young lady, just in the prime of life. Mr. Joel Elmore, of Bell's Run, neighborhood, is very low with pneumonia, but the doctors think he will recover.

—We propose to give to the subscribers of the Herald, for 1879, premiums on their agricultural products, to the amount of $150. Full programme will appear next week.

GARDEN PLOWING.

We are prepared to do garden plowing anywhere in or around town.

HALES & FIELD.

Why Don't You Preserve?

Preserve what? Your credit, by paying me what you owe me. This is addressed to every one that is indebted to me.

L. F. WERNER.

—Spring is here, the roads are drying out and it will soon be time to take a buggy ride, especially, if you will get a nice new buggy of.

D. F. TRACY.

BIG BONNERS.

We propose to give to the subscribers of the Herald, for 1879, premiums on their agricultural products, to the amount of $150. Full programme will appear next week.

NEW GOODS.

We are now receiving and opening a lot of nice notions, boots and shoes and other goods suitable for the early spring trade which we will sell at fair prices.

BURRIS & KIRK.

BALFORD, KY.

REMEMBER.

That I am still in the coal business. Will deliver coal in order, and will make garden plowing a specialty. A wick is as good as a nod to a blind horse.

J. F. YAGER.

FRESH MEATS.

We have arranged to keep a supply of fresh meats on hand, such as beef pork etc., and will be thankful for patronage.

Respectfully,

FUSNER & HILL.

SELLING AT COST.

Having commenced to receive our new spring stock of goods, and our store having a limited capacity, we will for the next 30 days sell our goods on hand at and even below cost to give us room good room to display the new goods. ROBBINS & KIRK.

JUST WIND UP.

Having sold out my interest as agent for S. H. Harrison, in the lively stable business, I desire to wind up all my business. Those indebted to me as such, will please call and settle up without further notice or delay, and whether they are pied or not, take unhooked, rather than have a tess in the family.

Miss Willie Shaffer, is still improving, she is going out hopped up, as soon as the weather will permit.

—Miss Nannie Ellen, of Paducah, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, of Ferre Haute, Indiana, returned home last Thursday evening.

—Miss Nannie Ellen, of Paducah, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, of Ferre Haute, Indiana, returned home last Thursday evening.

—Mr. Anderson Blain, has gotten over the measles and gone to putting up tobacco, this year for him.

—Our jester, Mr. E. L. Sullenger, has been confined to his room for a week or two with affliction of the eyes. During his illness Mr. Lou Hill has been acting as deputy jester.

—Mr. R. D. C. (X. Y. Z. and the rest of the alphabet) Moseley, formerly a citizen of this town, has returned and has taken a position behind the counter in the drug store.

—Mr. D. N. Branden, has purchased a fine buggy, the girls can go riding now, as the Doctor, is a ladies man.

Daniel & Co., have received 12,500 lbs. of tobacco and they have our 25,000 lbs. yet, and they are still buying.

—Mr. Scott, is stopping at Mr. Tom Bonds, while he is putting in the switch at Lewis' Mill.

—I think a few hundred yards of the meadow, would accommodate a large number of our customers when they ride to town.

—Wilson & Bro., have just returned from Louisville, and they have purchased a large stock of dry goods. Call and see them—they will sell them as cheap as any one.

—Dr. W. B. Bonham, says there is a good deal of Phthisis in the country. He is riding day, and night.

—Evan & Keuntzner, who have been selling goods here for the last year are going to move to Big Clifty, where they think they can do better. They will be missed, as they are business men.

—There is a lady in Conway county, Arkansas, Mrs. Bonham by name, who has been married thirteen times and has kept as a token of remembrance, a list of each husband. She has now reached a total of 100 in the list.

—I have secured the noted saddle and harness stallion, Lexington, and will make the ensuing season at my stable, two and a half miles north of Hartford, on the Hawesville road. I also will have the well-known Jack, Maximilian, and in better fix than ever before. Come and see, before patronizing elsewhere.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COUNTRY.

Having associated ourselves together for the purpose of conducting the Livery Stable business, and having made all the necessary preparation in that line, we are anxious to have the trade of the people. We are young, stout and active and give our own personal attention to our business. We will be able to take care of all the horses brought to us next Monday, or just one from each and every one who has come to patronize a stable here, feeling certain that we will guarantee a continuation of their custom.

HADEN & FIELD.

CALL FOR A DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

A mass convention of the Democratic party is hereby called to meet in Hartford, on Monday, March 24, 1879, (1st day of Criminal Court) at 1-1/2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held in Louisville, May 1st, 1879. All Democratic voters have a voice in the meeting and are requested to attend.

E. D. WALKER, Clif.

SUFFERING FOR A LIFE TIME.

Persons afflicted with rheumatism often for a life-time, their tortures being constant without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunate are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. Toward them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it, to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular circulation, and removing from the system all the morbid matter.

—The Ague Tonic cures the stomach, intestines, liver, opens the bowels, and tones up the body. It is a great medicine.

—The Clond's Cordial and other medicines.

—The Sandusky House, the prince of landlords and the proprietor of the "Sandusky House," Owenton Junction, called to see us Saturday.

If any of our readers want to get a good square meal as good as can be had any where from Maine to Texas, he is your man.

—Meador, Miller and Pendleton are the faithful and competent physicians who attend him.

—We are greatly honored that you can get the most perfect liquors, cigars and tobacco, to be had in town, at G. A. Price's renowned grocery store, opposite the court house.

L. F. WERNER.

—NOTICE TO PERSONS ATTENDING CRIMINAL COURT.

THE HERALD.

W. C. ROWAN.

Action of Hartford Lodge, No. 160, A. A. M. in regard to 48th Death.

Whereas, we are called upon to mourn the death of our venerable and much esteemed Brother, Wm. C. Rowan, who departed this life at his home on February, the 11th, 1879, it is to be known,

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Rowan, our Order has lost a tried, faithful and zealous member, one who, in his every day life, practiced those virtues which adorn Masonry — one who was ever ready to applaud and reward right, and condemn wrong, and whose old-fashioned hospitality will long be remembered by all whom good fortune may have led to his friendly threshold —

Resolved, That we will ever hold in pleasant memory the useful and earnest life of our deceased Brother, and endeavor to emulate those noble characteristics which rendered his life so beneficial to his family, friends and society —

Resolved, That we tender to his sorrowing children the sympathy of our Lodge, and proudly commend them to his lofty integrity of character as a fit example for their future lives —

Resolved, That we will attend his funeral as a Lodge and comply with his last request by burying him with the honors of our Order —

Resolved, That the Lodge be dismissed in adjournment and that each member wear the usual badge for thirty days —

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge; a copy be furnished the Hartford Herald for publication and a copy be delivered to the family of our deceased Brother.

BOWLING GREEN, Feb. 28
To the People of Kentucky:

Several newspaper articles containing much abuse of myself have appeared during the present Gubernational canvass. Heretofore I had thought it unnecessary to notice slanders, evidently intended for political effect, and which I still believe have no weight with those who know me; but since they find willing tongues of unscrupulous partisans to herald their baseless, I deem this notice not out of place. Of course, I would like to be Governor, but my good name is dearer to me than any position bought at its expense. Should the Democracy of the State prefer another to me, I will not complain, but, on the contrary, be most courageous; yet I do not want them to ascribe reasons for not selecting me which do not exist. Most of the communists traducing my character have found light just on the eve of county conventions, and their object has been so plain that the dullard could not fail to discover it. Misrepresentation has been put on my words and acts where it could be done to the advantage of another. That I have done anything unbecoming a gentleman and a man of honor is wholly without foundation, and whilst a few statements to the contrary are unintentionally wrong, yet many are intentional, and some are maliciously false. My manner of conducting the canvass is to treat my competitors as gentlemen, and to speak rather of their good qualities than defame their characters, and that policy I propose to continue to the end, whether I win or lose. The value and purpose of campaign slanders are readily understood, and I ask those who know my character and antecedents to defend me from such. This appeal I make independent of any political aspiration I may have, in behalf of a good name, toward the establishment of which a life of absolute honesty, morality and industry has been devoted. I regret the necessity for this card.

Truly and sincerely,
John C. UNDERWOOD.

How to Cook a Husband.

The first thing to be done is to catch him. Having done so, the mode of cooking him so as to make a good dish is as follows: — Many a good husband is spoiled in the cooking. Some women keep them constantly in hot water, while others freeze them with envious coldness; some smother them with hatred and contention, and still others keep them in pickle all their lives. These women always serve them up with meagre grace. Now I am not to be supposed that husband will be tender and good if treated this way, but they are, on the contrary, very delicious when managed as follows: — Get a large jar, called the jar of earnestness, (which all good husbands have on hand), place your husband in it and set him near the fire of conjugal love; let the fire be pretty hot especially let it be clear above all let the heat be constant; cover him over with affection; garnish him with the pique of plausibility; and if you like, and other confections, let them be accompanied with a sufficient portion of secrecy, mixed with prudence and moderation. — [New Era.]

Editor Herald.

Precious weather considering the time of year. It would be a very good joke on little frogs if a cold spell should come.

Outs and toadies are subjects of general talk with the farmers when they meet in town, and a ride through the country would convince one that it is no idle chit.

The horse or mule and plow you see, whatever you may think, and some are pulling logs and brush, a plow here or there.

A great many teams have been hauled to this place during the last week.

Little Peter Cooper is in the height of his glory this week; he don't stick in the mud.

Tom Lawrence strolls around town with a son's breakfast on his head. The little boys look up and shout, but can't reach it.
